

Hyperbaric Oxygen Therapy

Clinical Research Trial for Veterans & Active Duty Military Members

PURPOSE: To study the efficacy of hyperbaric oxygen therapy in treating veterans and active duty personnel with a diagnosis of a traumatic brain injury.

INCLUSIONS: 18-75 years of age, chronic mild to moderate TBI at least 1-year post injury still experiencing symptoms of TBI. Individuals must be willing and able to complete HBOT treatments and related study requirements.

Participants will be compensated $2600 for completing all the study requirements.

EXCLUSIONS: Currently enrolled in another clinical research trial, active malignancy, or other diagnoses making the completion of the HBOT sessions unfeasible.

hbot.usf.edu

813-396-9200

QR Code

USF Health

Offered by: University of South Florida Health
IRB Study #: STUDY006819
Minimum time commitment: 40 1-hour HBOT sessions at USF Health
PI: Harry van Loveren MD